Yu-Tung Huang

OCT 15, 1944 - OCT 4, 2020

Yu-Tung Huang, 74, of Richardson, TX, suddenly and unexpectedly passed away at home on October 4, 2020. Yu-Tung was born on October 15, 1944 in Shanghai, China to Yuh-Tung Ho and Wei-Shan Shu. She married Yuh-Juing Huang on October 10, 1970 in Taiwan, and lived there before moving to Richardson in 1985. Yu-Tung was a loving wife, caring mother and doting grandmother who loved to spoil her grandchildren. She enjoyed singing karaoke with her friends and liked to draw and write Chinese calligraphy. She was an excellent cook and often made pork belly Chinese style for her grandchildren. She was an avid viewer of Chinese and Taiwanese political news programs as well as Chinese cooking shows. One of her favorite past times was playing cards with her grandchildren. She was an origami expert and created the most beautiful and intricate designs. Yu-Tung was a beautiful woman inside and out. She will be greatly missed by all those who have known her. Yu-Tung is survived by her husband, Yuh-Juing, her children, Skye, Wendy and Mark, her sons in law, Mark Teng and Andy Liu, her daughter in law, Jina Han, as well as her four grandchildren, Carolyn, Connor, Sydney and Austin.
