My grandfather that I call popeh was the most respected man I ever knew. Everyone had great respect for him because he had cared for everyone and never thought about himself just wanted the best for everyone. He told me something I will always remember and keeps me determined to achieve my goals, " when you do something you love you never work a day in your life" he told me why I should make sure to get a career. I keep the stick me and him played with when I was little everywhere I go and I keep his ashes on my necklace because I need him close to me everywhere I go and am declared to make him proud.

My cousin Billy was the best. He was my big brother because I had only sisters until my brother was born. Even tempered, kind with an infectious smile are a few of his qualities. I am so blessed to have wonderful memories etched in my heart and mind. Sweet Peace my brother, you are loved

Bill helped our baseball team when Max was in little league. He was there for every practice and every game. He often helped my husband coach the boys or helped me in the dug out. He loved Max so much. I remember thinking what a wonderful grandpa he was. The boys always listened to him. He was very kind and thoughtful. I am praying for all of his family.
