I knew my sister - in - law Linda for a short 15 yrs. My wife and I visited from England almost yearly from that time. The moment I met Linda , I knew she was a very special lady. Always warm and inviting , she was always welcoming to us. We went on my first American roadtrip with her and her equally kind and thoughtful husband Jimmy. It showed me just how beautiful America is , and the kindness of Americans. I'll always have fond memories of Linda and the times we spent together and the times we laughed together. Rest in Peace Linda , you'll never be forgotten. Love always Adrian xxx
