I just found out. I don't even know what to say. Gary made middle and high school tolerable for me, and I hope I did the same for him. We talked about how we would break out of the confines of a small town. He was so funny. The last time I saw him was 2006. I always thought I would get another chance. I'm extremely sad that I won't get another opportunity in this life.

There are way too many memories to pick just one to share about Gary. But one thing I will never forget was his smirky smile and that laugh of his you could pick him out of a crowd anywhere. Love and miss you Gary.

Loved Gary so much! One of my very favorite cousins. I was at the hospital when he was born. Couldn't wait till he got here! When he was little he had to go everywhere I went. Such a sweet little boy. A few years back when I lived in Houston, we met up for lunch when I came thru Dallas. We had a great visit. He told me he was so very happy with Jim. I am so glad he had a great life with him. I will miss him and never forget the times I got to see him. RIP Gary. Loved you !

Here are a couple of pictures of Gary dancing with my mom (Gary's sister-in-law) at my and my wife's wedding in 2016. The pictures don't fully capture it, but they are good examples of the Gary we were fortunate enough to know -- a kind, hilarious man who lifted the mood of any room he was in. We loved him, and we express our condolences to those who loved him as well. Rest in peace, Gary.-- Scott and Karmen
