He was the son of Ralph Oliver Warren and Mary Juanita Mings-Warren. Ward spent most of his childhood growing up in Dallas on Park Lane. Ward received a bachelor degree of Political Science from Texas Tech University in 1970. Upon graduation, Ward was drafted into the US Army in 1970 where he served until being honorably discharged in 1972. After discharge, Ward achieved a Master's Degree of Urban Affairs from the University of Texas at Arlington. Ward also received designation as a certified property manager in 1990. Ward then proceeded to successfully start and operate multiple small businesses. His hobbies included: extensive reading, political analysis, spreading the word of God, spending any spare moment with his grandchildren, and he was extremely passionate about helping others. Ward is survived by his spouse Linda Warren (Dallas, TX); his children Jennifer Warren (Dallas, TX); Reagan and Sydney Warren (Wylie, TX); and his grandchildren Zoe Capelle, Sawyer and Eleanor Warren. Ward was preceded in death by his mother Juanita and father Ralph Warren.
