Tommie graduated from Cooper High School. She worked for many years at Kraft Foods before joining Store Decor in Rowlett, a career that lasted 29 years. It was at Store Décor that Tommie met Robert Potts, and they were married in 2000.

Tommie loved gardening, growing flowers and especially enjoyed her time with Robert at the lake home near Mount Vernon. She also enjoyed being a hostess for friends and family, and was known for huge family feasts at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

She was a member of the First Christian Church of Garland, and often mentioned that her life was like a beautiful fairy tale. One of her favorite phrases was “Hey sugar!!!” She was quite skilled at keeping Robert in check with “NOW BOB!!!”

We will always be thankful for all the memories, for her distinctive laugh and matter-of-fact personality, and the love that will live on in our hearts.
