A favorite poem of Jerry's that his family would like to share with you:

First Fig: a poem by Edna St. Vincent Millay in 1920

“My candle burns at both ends;

It will not last the night;

But ah, my foes, and oh, my friends—

It gives a lovely light!”

As a young man my cousin Jerry worked some jobs with my dad DL on pipeline jobs! He told my dad later in life that standing next to a man (DL) with a welding torch in his hand scrubbing down welds in 100 degree weather was a great motivator to get his college degree! Jerry and my dad also held the record at our family reunions of by passing the food tables and going straight to the desert tables to make sure they got piece of Rubys pies!
