Judith Schulten posted:

It was my very great privilege in 1975 to meet Long Phan Huynh and his then-much-smaller family. Now it is my privilege to honor the memory of a Vietnamese hero, an American hero, and a beloved child of God. His life, as that of his entire family, was difficult in the extreme. He persevered to see the family grow and become a credit to him and to his two countries. Now I pray for him on the rosary he brought me from Fatima. That rosary is precious to me and so is the friendship of this extraordinary family. May God bless Long and all of us who knew him. Judith Schulten
