Oh my... what a loss. Glenn was such a joyful, funny (with a little snark!), gracious man. As a Bugatti patron, and a forever Glenn fan-girl, my heart is breaking that he is no longer with us. I always believed that he would pull out of this, that Martin and Glenn would resume their life together.... It's a sad day but a day I choose to remember his spirit and joy. Hugs and kisses, Glenn. You are loved, and missed. Kathy Keith

Glen you know I love you brother-n-law. I will always miss you. You & Martin have always been special to many and loved. I will take care of Martin as you asked, I should have done more sooner. My timing was off but always hoping I had much more ability to go spend time with ya'll. Glen ❤️ Martin. Until we see each other again may you rest in peace & save me a spot. Gotta some catching up to do. Your's truly, Mary Grace 🤗 Hugs

First memory of Glenn goes back to the time we were just moving into our house some 30 years ago. Glenn and Martin were walking their dog and they took the time to introduce themselves and welcome us to the neighborhood. Condolences to his loved ones. Hope you know Buck enjoyed his talks with Glenn. Frances Buck
