Sally Ann Ardis

AUG 9, 1926 - FEB 8, 2023

Sally Ann (Webster) Ardis, 96, of Plano, Texas, passed away on Wednesday, Feb. 8 after a long illness.

She was born on Aug. 9, 1926 in Friendship, New York, to Dr. Elmer Stanley Webster and Helon (Pitts) Webster. She graduated high school in Friendship, where her father was president of the school board. From 1944 to 1946 she was a student at Arcadia University (then known as Beaver College) in Glenside, Pennsylvania.

In 1946, Sally married Beverly Donn ("Joe") Ardis, a World War II veteran who served in Europe with the Royal Canadian Air Force's 428 Bomber Squadron. Following their wedding they moved to Long Beach, California and while there they had two children, Bruce Duncan Ardis and Gary Douglas Ardis. In the mid-1950s his work at the Colgate-Palmolive Company brought them to the Dallas area where they had two more children, William Donn Ardis and Michael Dean Ardis. All four sons graduated from Highland Park High School in Dallas.

In the early 1970s Sally began a 25-year career in retail working for the Sanger-Harris department store (later known as Foley's, and eventually purchased by Macy's) in Preston Center in Dallas.

She was joined in Dallas by her mother, who moved to the area following the death of Dr. Webster in the mid-1960s, and by her brother John, whose work with the Boy Scouts of America brought him to the Dallas area in the 1970s.

Sally's husband passed away in 1997 and after retiring she spent her approximately 20 years serving as a volunteer with the Methodist Richardson Medical Center, near where she lived in Richardson. She also spent time with her family, walking her dogs, and traveling, taking several cruises to Alaska, the Panama Canal, and the St. Lawrence Seaway. She spent her last few years at the Prestonwood Court assisted living facility. She was known for her love of the Peanuts comic strip (Snoopy in particular), her father's practical jokes, guacamole and margaritas.

My sincere condolences and sympathy to the family and friends of Sally Ann Ardis. She was a kind and caring lady who gave me one of my first jobs in retail at Sanger Harris (Preston Center). She was our Human Resource Director at that time. Years later she still met with the former employees at El Fenix on NWHY for our monthly luncheons. I will always remember her fondly and with great respect for this fine lady. We were/are richer for having her in our lives.
