Adrienne Felicia Davis

JUN 12, 1968 - JUL 25, 2023

Adrienne Felicia Davis of Dallas, TX was born on June 12, 1968, in Monroe, LA to the parents of Mr. Richard Lee Davis and the late Mrs. Ruthie Bell Bradley Davis. Adrienne Davis married Adedamola Adelowale Adeyemi “aka Daniel” on March 26, 2016, in Dallas, TX. She joined St. Joe Baptist Church in Alto, LA at an early age. She attended RCCG Cornerstone Assembly in Farmers Branch, TX. She was a graduate of Carroll High School Class of 1986 and attended Northeast Louisiana University. She later moved to Dallas, TX where she lived and worked for more than 3 decades and was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan. Adrienne was a Jackie-of-all-trades. In addition to the various jobs she held over the years, she was a licensed tax preparer, a notary, and an ordained minister (in which she officiated a wedding ceremony). Adrienne was a caring, loving, and generous person for everyone she cared about. She had a giant heart. Adrienne will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

Adrienne was preceded in death by her mother, Ruthie Bell Bradley Davis. Adrienne leaves to cherish her memories a devoted and loving husband, Daniel Adeyemi; father, Richard Lee Davis, Los Angeles, CA; a bonus dad (as she called him), Alvin Gray, Monroe, LA; two sisters: Sonya Davis Sampson (Darrell), Germantown, MD; and Monique Davis, Dallas, TX; one nephew, Alexander Sampson, Germantown, MD; and a host of relatives and friends.

Wow!! I'm still in disbelief..so many memories of our times at Chase and outside of the office. I don't think I've met someone who gives like you gave to all, that's just rare in this day and age. You will be missed Adrienne, by all who loved you. No more suffering, rest well queen! Lisa

I don't know where to start, but the first word I can think of is LAUGHTER! For the countless, unforgettable memories, "Chase" Comedy Hour specials, being the Ace of ALL trades, extending yourself beyond measure and always graceful with a smile.My heart is shattered in pieces I could've never imagined having to mend back together. You ARE and will forever be loved, Adrienne Felicia Davis!To the Davis Family and those near and dear to Adrienne, May God bless you with the peace and comfort needed through the moments of grievance.

To Daniel, Adrienne's husband, and The Davis family, words cannot express the pain we fill inside for this great loss of our dear friend and sister. Adrienne was a light to those who knew her and shared a special bond with her. We pray God provides comfort and peace during this difficult time. Much Love Evelyn, Joe, and Danielle
