Judith Lee Bloomer "Judy"

JUN 25, 1944 - NOV 4, 2023

Judith Lee White Bloomer, age 79, of Plano, Texas passed away on November 4, 2023. Judith was born on June 25, 1944 to parents Dorothy and John White in Greenville, Texas . She was preceded in death by her loving husband, David Bloomer.

Judy was loved by all that knew her. She was known by many as "Mommy", "Juju" and "Miss Jude". Judy was a cherished mother to her daughter Julie Freeman and husband Scott Freeman and son David Kadleck and wife Leilani Kadleck She was also a proud grandmother to Kendall Kadleck, Chase Freeman, Ashley Kadleck and Braiden Bowling.

She treasured her many friends. Her lifelong friendships brought her so much joy and happiness. She adored her cousins and their children and grandchildren. Judy was so grateful for her precious caregivers, Anna, Alem, Faith, Peggy and Esther. Her family is deeply appreciative for the care and comfort that they provided to her over the years.

She graduated from Adamson High School in 1962 in Dallas, Texas. She became a dedicated homemaker. Her love for cooking and hosting dinner parties brought joy to her friends and family. She was a long time Methodist church member. Judy had a remarkable sense of fashion and always exuded elegance. She was the life of the party and her captivating smile lit up the room. Judy had a lifetime love of cats and her current kitty, Nosey, was no exception. She had a deep passion for spending quality time with her children and grandchildren, creating cherished memories that lasted a lifetime.

Judy and her late husband, David Bloomer shared a love for adventure, traveling around the world, spending evenings at the movie theater, and dining at III Forks.

While Judy is no longer with us, her memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and a shared appreciation for life's beauty.

I was a friend of Judy's at Adamson and before. I remember being with both her and Judy Cabine. They were very close friends. Judy was a fun person to know and be around. I loved her ability to make people laugh. I was at her 16th birthday party. We have since communicated often and have followed her on Facebook. Loved her beauty and loved her personality and her mom. A very great friend and a person you don't forget in your lifetime.
