Justin was my best friend ever since grade school. His charisma and joyful spirit brought smiles to everyone he was around. He was extremely talented and could always make you laugh. He was taken from us way too soon but I know he is in good hands. It's never good bye but see you later brother. I'm always thinking about you and I know you're finally at peace.

I remember when Justin would always convince his 2 years younger cousin Malcolm to trade a toy or piece of clothing and convince Malcolm that it was a fair trade when in actuality it almost always wasn't but both were satisfied with the trade:):):)

I'll always remember the Justin I knew in middle and high school. He was funny, quick-witted, always smiling, a little mischievous, and never malicious. Justin was probably the most charismatic person in our graduating class and could make anyone laugh. He was also an incredible athlete and teammate, and I cherish the memories we shared in the Hornets soccer program. Justin was integral to several championship seasons, and was an incredible competitor. He could also always make Dick Hall crack up! Simply said, this is a tragedy. Justin is gone too soon, and I wish we could have had more chances to be together. Rest in peace, Justin. You are forever missed.

My brother, your smile and light will always remain in my bones. This definitely hurts and I can't express enough how grateful I was for your spirit throughout the years. Iron sharpens iron and I always looked up to your strength and heart for people. GHS bagel break and sports wouldn't have been the same without you, thank you for your compassion. I'll be thinking of you, your family and everyone that was blessed to have an opportunity to know you. Champion, we miss you. - Matt Oh
