Richard T Whelan lit a candle in honor of Charles.

I remember meeting my cousin Charles when he came to Akron, Ohio to visit my sister Mary and her husband Tom Kirstein at their house. I lived with them at the time. I played Mary Had A Little Lamb on the school clarinet for him. I'm not sure he wanted to hear it but he was kind enough to listen. Which I appreciated. This would have been about 1957 Or 58.
