I remember Gary and his quick smile. I first met him at Mamma's apartment for the family Christmas gathering, way back when Dan and I first married. He was teasing his siblings and cousins throughout the evening. I think he was the first of Dan's cousins to get to hold our daughter Nicole when she was an infant. We did not get to visit often, but when we did, Gary always made us feel welcome. I know he loved to fish and was really good at it. Those fish didn't have a chance if he was around. He was there in support of us when Bill and Bette passed away. I pray the family will focus on the good times and cherish the memories made. Rest in peace.
