Billy Joe Campbell

NOV 22, 1940 - MAY 22, 2024

Billy Joe Campbell, beloved father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend, passed away on May 22, 2024 in Dallas, TX. He was born in Commerce, TX on November 22, 1940, to Alvis Lee Campbell and Lucille Kirk Campbell. He lived his life in Dallas, TX, graduating from Crozier Technical High School. He was smart, hardworking, and kind. Billy Joe was a masterful story-teller with a sharp sense of humor. He built successful businesses and loved his work and his work family.

Billy Joe married the love of his life, Carol Ann Rush, on February 18, 1961. They were deeply devoted to each other and enjoyed 58 wonderful years together.

Billy Joe was preceded in death by his beloved wife; his parents; his brothers, David Campbell, Sr and Ronald Lee Campbell; and his brother-in-law, Thomas Rush.

He is survived by his children, Laura Campbell Vest, Gregg Campbell, and Donna Campbell (Mekki Ibnoueddas); his cherished grandsons, Matthew Vest and Andrew Vest; brothers, Leon Campbell (Jean) and Wayne Campbell; brother-in-law Charles Rush (Rosalind); sister-in-law Cherie Rush Johnson (Leland); nephew Tommy Rush; and many nieces, nephews, business associates, and friends. Billy Joe treasured his family above all. He will be deeply missed.

I moved to the DFW from Corsicana back in 2002, and The Search for a Good "Big City" job began, I had an interview that went like this: He read my resume, looked at me and said "If you can do what you say you can do, the job is yours" and I have been a member of the MC work family since that day. I am eternally grateful to BJ for hiring me, trusting me and treating me so well for the last 21 years, I will Miss you Best Boss EVER and I will see you when I get HOME.....
