April 4th, 1946 - February 3rd, 2025

With gentle compassion and a kind heart, William Thomas McLaughlin II brightened the lives of all who knew him. Born on April 4th, 1946, in McKinney, Texas, William had an unwavering love for the outdoors, where he found joy and peace amidst nature.

Butch, I will miss your unique ability to eloquently put words together to paint a picture when telling a story, joke, newsletter or your superior master of ceremonies presenting the Calcutta. I will never forget the memory you shared about driving home from a night tournament and your sleeping partner in the passenger seat. You jerked the wheel and his head hit the window waking him to his confirmation of seeing the imaginary dog crossing the highway. I giggle about that all the time. Fairwinds and Following Seas Sir.

Butch, I will miss your unique ability to be able to put words together that paint an eloquent picture. Whether that was in the Monthly Newsletter, Master of Ceremonies presenting the Calcutta, telling a Joke or reciting a memory of loved ones that put a smile on people that were listening. I will never forget that time when you jerked the wheel going down the road causing your sleeping partner's head to hit window to miss that imaginary dog crossing the highway. I giggle about that all the time. Fairwinds and Following Sea Sir.
