Too many memories to post here, I worked with "Rod" for many years, good friend, Highly Respected among his peers, he was the Go-To guy for everything. He could find the wildest references that no-one else could, I can't say enough about him. He would stop everything to help anyone, and I was greatly appreciative of the many times he baled us out while working together in South Korea. The only fault he had was he was unfortunately a Cowboys Fan. I tried my best to convert him, to no avail...Love you Rod, see you on the other side. bobm
