Terry Caracuzzo

MAY 29, 1950 - MAR 24, 2026

Terry John Caracuzzo, age 75, passed away March 24, 2026, in Dallas, Texas.

Born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland, Terry went on to earn his undergraduate degree from the University of Delaware. He returned to Baltimore to pursue graduate studies at Johns Hopkins University where he completed a master's degree in mathematics and physics.

In 1977 he moved to Dallas and embarked on a long career working at the frontier of computer technology, including stints at Texas Instruments, Convex Computer, and Hewlett Packard.

He was an avid bicyclist and an active participant in the Dallas cycling community. He was also a car enthusiast well known for his succession of custom Porsches.

Terry made friends naturally and was known by all for his generosity. He faced the relentless progression of Parkinson's Disease with courage, determination, and grace. He will be deeply missed.

Terry is survived by his brother, Tom Caracuzzo; sister-in-law, Carol Falcione; and nieces, Melissa Santiago and Terri Mason.

in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research.

I worked with Terry 50 years ago at JHU APL, and although we didn't stay in contact I will always remember his kindness and intelligence. He helped me at the start of my computer programming career. I remember he drove a BMW back then and was interested in learning to play the banjo. God Bless Terry and my condolences to his family.
