“ Courtney, your always smiling face brought so much joy to the JCPenney offices. While I knew you for a short time, your presence on my life was so darn impactful. It breaks my heart that your life was so short lived. I hope that you can look down on all your family and friends with that same, beautiful smile. You are missed and my heart aches for your boys, family and loved ones. xoxoxo

“ Hunter and I are absolutely heartbroken. Courtney, you were beautiful, smart, and so much fun! We shared many wonderful times together and I will always cherish the memories. I loved watching you become a Mom and know how much you absolutely adored Jack and Charlie. I also know you loved Jesus and now can spend eternity in His presence. We will continue to pray for your boys, your family, and your friends that all loved you so dearly! I love you and will miss you dearly.
