

Dan Kent McCleskey Jr.

July 26, 1955 - March 29, 2021

Dan Kent McCleskey, Jr. was born in Lubbock, Texas on July 26, 1955. He passed away on March 29, 2021.

A master of his craft and an accomplished woodworker.

He was a rare combination of someone who had a love of life and a firm understanding of what was important—the simplicity of living, the value of taking pride in his work, and a quality life with those he loved.

A devoted father and papa he is survived by his three children Chrissie, Candie and Corey. His grandchildren were the center of his world, Tristan, Daniel, Dahlia, Brynn, Eli and Dean. He is also survived by Harley his macaw for 30 years.

This wonderful man will always be remembered for his pocket t-shirts, cookies, endless stories and sarcastic humor. He loved helping others and was always smiling and making jokes. He will be greatly missed by all whose lives he was a part of.

There will be a celebration of life at Restland Funeral Home.

Comments

“ An external video has been added.

Restland Funeral Home and Cemetery - May 01 at 05:40 PM

“ A webcast video has been added.

Restland Funeral Home and Cemetery - May 01 at 02:18 PM

“ Very sorry to hear of Kent's passing. We grew up in Mesquite and he was a good ballplayer, and great bowler. I can't count the number of times he lost a contact lens while playing football with us, but he always managed to find it himself, no matter how much the rest of the players tried to help. I know he loved his family and I always considered him a good friend. Prayers for the family during this sad time.

Steve Davis - April 29 at 01:09 AM

“ My dad was my everything. He is missed so much already

candice - April 20 at 07:52 PM