He is also survived by his children Lauren and her husband Jon Nuckles, Ellen and her husband Dave Fox, James and his wife Diana, Karen and her husband William Hudson, John and his wife Stacey, and Andrew and his wife Amanda. Evans was born on January 13, 1935, in Chicago to James and Christina (Tavoulare) Kostas. A graduate of the Illinois Institute of Technology and recipient of an Executive MBA from the University of Chicago, Evans had a long career as an engineer and then as an executive, serving as CEO and Chairman of the Board for the publicly traded King Press Corporation at his retirement.

Evans was a family man first, loving nothing more than gathering them for dinner and an evening of jokes. Like a true Texan, he was a fan of "Waylon, and Willie and the boys." He was an accomplished private pilot who was well known in the small cafes in the tiny airports around the Texas countryside. An avid golfer, Evans had a swing that was unforgettable. His love for Janet and his care for her during her illness was inspiring in its tenderness. Evans regularly shared how grateful he was for his family and his life.

There is a small, private service on Wednesday, October 27 at Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Dallas, Texas. In lieu of flowers, the family asks you to consider a donation in memory of Evans to the Muscular Dystrophy Association at <https://mda.donordrive.com/campaign/Evans-Kostas> . Evans' grandson Henry is living with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy.
