February 12, 1929 - June 26, 2020

Genevieve Pat Zedlitz, at 91 years young, went to heaven to be with her Lord on June 26, 2020.

Pat was born on February 12, 1929 in Miami, Oklahoma to her parents: Zelma and Chief Lewis Barlow. She loved her family and she and her brother Bill were brought up in a loving Christian home.

She applied her creative artistic talents to costume design and bridal gowns, as well as singing with the Over the Hill Gang. Pat dearly loved get togethers, whether it was family or church. She enjoyed cooking and baking for everyone.

Pat was preceded in death by her parents, stepdaughter Elizabeth and husband Bill. She is survived by her brother Bill, wife Pat, her sons Jack, wife Suzanne, and Chris, wife Kathy, daughter Connie, husband Greg, stepdaughter Kristin, husband Dustin. Seven grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren, and four nephews.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Your mom made my wedding dress from a magazine picture I gave her. She also made all the Bridesmaids's dresses. I was working at VVCC at the time. Pat was authentic. I loved that about her.

“ Aunt Pat was one of a kind. There's simply no other way to put it. She was the crazy aunt. The aunt who made silly jokes with you and showed up at your house in full costume on Halloween. She was the aunt who told you stories about when your parents were kids; stories they'd probably rather you not have heard. She was the one who made you feel loved, despite having her own kids and grandkids and great grandkids.
She's the aunt I'll miss dearly. The aunt I wish I'd had more time with. The aunt I wish I'd known better. But I feel lucky to have known her as I did.

“ Remembering visits to the Zedlitz' office with my husband, Tom, and sharing time with Pat. She was warm and informed, and a lovely lady whom I shall not forget. I never forgot her telling of her Indian heritage of which the family may all be so proud! Special memories, still fresh over the years.
May God Bless. Jane Hook
