“ Uncle George was the kindest, most loving uncle. He was a man of few words yet those words said volumes. When he was getting ready to say something clever his eyes would sparkle. I will treasure all those card games with Aunt Jane while Uncle George quietly watched ... usually nibbling on some chocolate or cookie and coffee. One of my most cherished memories of Uncle George is when I would hug him and I would say “Because I can. I love you.” He would smile and say, “I like this! Love you. “. He always loved me as family. What a wonderful man who will live on in all our hearts. Love to all and an especially big hug for Aunt Jane.
