

Henry Lee Wilson

July 14, 1970 - February 7, 2021

Henry Lee Wilson, age 50, of Fort Worth, Texas, died Sunday morning, February 7, 2021. Born July 14, 1970, in Dallas, Texas, he was the son of the late Lloyd Wilson and Elizabeth and Tommy Jones.

Henry was very patriotic man and loved his country. He was a veteran of the Air Force and Army. He served between 1989-1993. Henry was a respected businessman in the food and beverage industry. He worked for over twenty years in various sales positions and developed a reputation for being quite the salesman with undeniable charisma and charm. Not only was he a great salesman, but he was an incredibly generous and giving person, not only of his money, but his time as well. He was someone you could always count on. In his spare time, he enjoyed watching his Dallas Cowboys, listening to his favorite music, fishing and spending time with his friends and family. He would always say that he lived a life less ordinary and told those around him to do the same.

Henry is survived by his wife, Bibiana Lorena Wilson; along with four children; Heather and Brian Miller of Garland, Texas, Aubrie and Justin Luckie of New Braunfels, Texas, Liam Henry Wilson of Fort Worth, Texas and Daniel Brooks of Saginaw, Texas, five grandchildren, Noah Davis, Lucille Miller, Hadley Miller, Elizabeth Miller, Skylar Davis; his brother Doug and Angie Wilson, his sister Jennifer Jones, brother Calvin Jones, sister Angela and Bruce Newton, long-time best friend and confidante Deanna Holderith and many loving nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ You are my baby boy and always will be just that. You brought much joy to my life and a piece of my heart is gone forever. I love you now and I love you always. There are good memories that will come in time but for now it is mostly sorrow and missing you so much. You did live a life less ordinary, son and I miss you so much. Love you always, mom.

PROVERBS 3:5-6

5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
