

James George Klinkhamer

March 17, 1963 - August 17, 2018

James George “Jim” Klinkhamer died Friday, August 17 at Baylor Medical Center. Jim was born on St. Patrick’s Day, 1963 to James and Dolores Klinkhamer. He grew up in Carpentersville, Illinois with a devoted group of guys who remain close to this day. They all attended Eastern Illinois University and will forever be the Penguins. He relocated to Texas in 1988 where he lived a full Texas sized life. He is survived by his adoring (and adored) wife Jennifer. He was a devoted and loving father to Hayden, Kenzie, Chloe, Hudson and Adam. He also leaves behind his loving “big bro” Dan (wife Sue), nephew Kevin, niece Julie (husband Aaron Pankoke) and special great niece Anna James Pankoke. He was preceded in death by his parents, Jim and Dee, his brother Steve and his grandparents Bess and George (his namesake) Krizek. Whether you knew him as Jamie, Jaybird, Jay, Jimbo, Klink or just Jim he was a true and loyal friend who always took time to listen and learn. He had friends all over the United States. He loved life and lived it to the fullest. His wish is that everyone lives their life the same way. Go Cubs! A funeral service for Mr. Klinkhamer will be held at 2:00 pm Saturday August 25, 2018 at the Christ United Methodist Church Plano. Funeral arrangements for Mr. James George Klinkhamer have been faithfully entrusted to Restland Funeral Home and Cemetery, which is located at 13005 Greenville Ave., at the intersection of Restland Road, Dallas, Texas 75243, and can be reached at (972) 238-7111.

Comments

“ Jim, you fought the good fight better than anyone could have. Rest In Peace. Your nieces Lindsey and Leslie and your grand-nephew Kaden and grand-niece Sophia mourn your passing. Thank you for including them in your life.

Pat O'Connor - August 22, 2018 at 02:20 PM

“ Condolences to his family. He was the uncle to my sweet nieces Lindsey and Leslie-daughters of his brother Steven.

P Poupon - August 22, 2018 at 10:37 AM