“ Tomorrow would have been Jan's 70th birthday. I just can't believe she is no longer with us. Jan & I became good friends in 9th grade. We had both recently moved to Richardson and were seated beside each other in most of our classes, both of us having last names that started with a P. We went on to U.T. together and became sorority sisters in Alpha Phi. One of my most vivid memories was the sad day I flew home with Jan during our freshman year after her mother died. I hated that she had to go through that sorrow at such a young age. Jan was a lively, vibrant person, full of enthusiasm. I'm glad she was able to have so many fun experiences traveling with her job and into her retirement. She made many friends along the way. May she rest in peace.

“ We met in the 9th grade. We were friend/acquaintances during high school and due to late dorm selections we ended up rooming together at a private dormitory, off campus, at the University of Texas in the fall of 1969 - an exciting time to be at the university. That was when we developed a deep friendship, one lasting for the next 51 years. She was a sweet soul. She was generous, curious, intelligent and loved living the good life. Her birthday was 2 weeks after mine and when possible we would meet for a birthday lunch or dinner. I already had a card picked out for the big day, first week of January. News of her death took the wind out of me. I am crushed. I had adventures to propose and I looked forward to seeing her again. Farewell, my friend. I hope you are traveling still.

“ Hey Rick,

I met Jan right after starting college. We "hit it off" and became roommates soon after pledging Alpha Phi. I was lucky Jan invited me to stay at your home in Richardson during football games and for special occasions. You and your Dad were wonderful hosts, often entertaining us. Do you remember telling us about having car trouble and driving home backwards? Oh, how we laughed.

She will be missed! It still isn't "real" to me. Take care and be well. I hope you get to hug your grandchildren soon.

Love, Susan Tudor Walls

“ I will miss Jan dearly for her bright smile and her love of travel. I will treasure forever memories of her in Austin....from fun at The Contessa to escapades at the Alpha Phi House....together with the memories of my trip with Susan Melton Harden to meet Jan in Rome and then to visit her in Geneva. Sending much APhi love in her honor to her friends and family, truly, Linda Schraub Ray
