“ Jake was a great friend and coworker at Mercurygate. He was sadly missed when he left, but we continued to bounce ideas off each other. He had a great love for his kids, he was extremely proud of them. Jake you are sadly missed. Our deepest sympathies go out to your family.

“ Jake was a great man! He really was a very passionate and kind person who was always laughing. He was always available to help me with work or if we wanted to just chat about Cowboys football. You will be missed!
