

John Martin Mayeron

October 12, 1954 - September 15, 2020

John Martin Mayeron, 65, of Dallas, Texas and Minneapolis, Minnesota died surrounded by the family he adored and who worshipped him, on September 15, 2020 of complications following an accident. John was an extraordinary man whom everyone liked upon meeting. He had a successful life-long career in the financial services industry, but was far more successful in his personal life, happily married to his wife Babs. His relationship with their son Kyle was also exceptionally close. A passionate collector of baseball memorabilia and a Texas Rangers season ticket holder, for 25+ years he and Kyle went to the World Series, creating cherished father-son memories. He coached Little League and remained close to many of his players.

John is preceded in death by his father Harry and mother Gloria. He is survived by his wife Babs, son Kyle, daughter-in-law Maria -- all of Dallas; sister Candace Mayeron of Los Angeles, Constance Cowles of Minneapolis, rescue dog Eddie and in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, all of whom are grieving through the hole in their hearts. Due to Covid, a private service will be held at Restland Funeral Home later this week. Donations may be made in his name to the SPCA or the Jesuit College Preparatory School of Dallas.

“ My heart is broken for all of you. John was a gentleman first, after that his attributes are endless. Seeing John at our 45th reunion was a burst of energy and rekindled many memories of some of the best times I had growing up. As you can imagine, there was never a dull moment. His heart was big, his spirit generous and I respected him as a man of integrity. We ran with the same circle of friends, I considered him a best friend. I would always tease John and tell him that he was the best Eddie Haskell! He could charm anyone into doing whatever. This was very true and came in handy with parents teachers and socially.

You are all in my prayers and I will forever be grateful for the time we had together. Blessing.

I love the Jesuit order, their philosophies and kind and gentle ways.

“ I only knew John for about a year, but during that relatively short time we established an immediate friendship, really enjoyed each other’s company, I loved his honesty and sincerity and his gifted mind, he had both sides working all the time, my heart aches for his wife Babs and son Kyle, who although we never met I feel like I know because John and I would see each other often sometimes weekly except when one of us might have been traveling, and when we talked in person or by phone he always would bring up his wife and son, it hurts to think he’s not going to get to hold his one and only grandchild that he was so looking forward to and his desire to keep his World Series streak of attendances with Kyle is very unfortunate, I’m sure a World Series trip will never be quite the same for you Kyle, but knowing your Dad he’d be very happy if you would keep the streak going with your child. Would love to have the opportunity to meet both you and your mom Kyle:I am truly heartbroken for the two of you and extended family, may God bring you rest and allow you to find comfort in John’s absence.

Robert& Linda Gaudin (my wife and I are remodeling are home and John allowed my wife and her designer to visit your home Babs because John was my go to sports memorabilia expert and kind enough to assist me throughout our short time together. If there’s ever occasion for us to meet it would be my honor to do so, I can be reached at 817-875-1444.

“ My deepest condolences to the entire Mayeron family.
John and I grew up a few blocks apart in SLP, shared some amazing childhood experiences together, both leaving the hood fairly young for parts unknown, but still keeping a few special ties back there.
RIP John!
