“ Joe was a very kind heart and good friend. He was always full of humor and made us laugh. He had a stubborn streak a mile-wide. It was an honor to work along side of him. He enjoyed sharing stories, and bragging, about his grandchildren. His love for music touched many people. Joe will always have a special place in our hearts.

“ Dear Mary and Family: Please accept deepest condolences. This writer is so proud of Joe's personal and professional growth at TXI. When I left there following 27 years of employment, it was Joe that drove me home. His career epitomized hard work and highest personal ethic. Joe never disappointed. Living out of state, I apologize for being unable to attend services. Please know you are in our prayers.
