“ The impact you had on so many lives you will never know. You helped me in ways that you would never know. Be at peace now and may you rest easy. Until we meet again my friend. All my love, thoughts, and prayers to the family.

“ For the short time we had it was apparent that we would get along quite easily. All the stories your sister would tell me about you left me with the feeling of “I can't wait to meet him”. we finally did and I am so glad that I was able to share a small fraction life getting to know Mac. I am deeply saddened for Cat, Damian and Tiffany at this time,they know like I do that where ever you are its going to be live AFRIP

“ From the first day we met at Shelbyville High School, you were a good friend to me. No matter what was going on in your life, you always had a grin on your face and it was contagious. It's been so long since I've seen you or even talked to you and I painfully regret not taking the time or making more of an effort to see you and the rest of our friends from back then. No matter the time since last seen, or the distance between us, I always thought the world of you. I will always look back at the times we had together with a tear in my eye and a smile on my face. You were definitely one in a million. Rest In Peace old friend. Much love...

“ May you find the peace in death that you could never find in life. Rest easy brother, and take as good if care of your sister from up there as she did for you down here.

“ Ill remember Mac as the guy banging wrenches on suction rods, tripping pipe, laying down pipe, all day everyday with no hard hat or shirt. Later I'll remember him being successful in oil fields working on drilling rigs one week and living free as he wished on days off. He was generous, kind, loyal, and the kinda guy you needed to have your back. Mac was the real deal and drew some bad hands in life. Ultimately he folded and lost but he played the game harder than anyone I every know.

“ Mac, you were always the big brother I never knew I needed or wanted. I wanted to type out a long story about how many times we laughed together, poked each other's nerves, and how many times you rescued me from any situation no matter how small or big it was but there isn't enough space so for now until I see you again I hope you are at peace. RIP my dear friend. Love you

“ Mac, Cousins are usually the first friends we have as children. No one will ever understand your crazy family like your cousins do even if you haven't talked much lately. A cousin is a little bit of childhood that can never be lost. So here I write feeling like I've lost one of my childhood best friends. When you lose a cousin, you lose a family member. A friend. Someone who you loved (and still love, will always love) with every ounce of your broken heart. Even though you are gone away, Your love will always be here to stay. You touched our hearts with so many things. God knew you were the one to save, He took you home to get some rest. Our hearts are filled with so much pain, God loved you more, there was no shame. At this time we must let go. Your memories we will keep a flow. Rest our dear mac-aroni with peace of mind, Your memories will live on through. Rest In Peace Your Cousin Krystal

“ I’m so sorry for your loss, I remember when Mac first came to Shelbyville we clicked from the first hey. He was a great friend to me. Even when we found each other again on FB he was still the same Mac. I don’t know what happened & it hurts like crazy to know he’s not here anymore.. I just wish I could have talked one last time to him... So from Shelbyville I’m sending all the hugs & prayers I can to his family. “Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning” Psalm 30:5 “Forever in our Hearts Mac Gibbons” Shelbyville Class of 2003
