

Marcelle Woolfolk

November 5, 1928 - May 20, 2019

Marcelle Woolfolk, 90, of Dallas, TX passed away on May 20, 2019. Marcelle was born on November 5, 1928, in England, Arkansas to her loving parents, James and Ida Mae Covington. She attended Scott High School and later graduated from Baptist Hospital with a degree in Nursing. After her career in nursing, Marcelle worked at Blue Cross Blue Shield for 20 years. Marcelle was the sweetest person that anyone could ever know. She was a hard worker and a passionate wife, mother, and caregiver. She had a caring, loving heart and took care of her family up to the last days of her life. She will sincerely be missed by her family and friends. Marcelle is preceded in death by her husband, Robert L. Woolfolk and a sister, Maycel Ball. She is survived by her sons, Robert Woolfolk, Jr. of Dallas, TX and Gary Woolfolk of Hurst, TX; daughter-in-law, Cathy Woolfolk of Hurst, TX; Grandchildren: Brandon and Ashley Woolfolk of Hurst, TX; and sister, Martine Campbell of Little Rock, AR. Memorial services for Marcelle will be held at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, May 25, 2019, at Restland Cemetery in the section of Trinity.

“ Deepest sympathy to Gary, Bobby, and the family in the loss of their mother Marcelle. Marcelle was my aunt (my mother Maycel’s sister). She was a very dear, wonderful aunt, and I will miss her greatly. She truly had such a sweet, kind personality and was always interested in others. She had called me a couple of times since December, and I was so impressed at how alert she was even at 90 years of age. I am sorry I did not get to the funeral, but just know her passing was very heartfelt and sad to me. My prayers are with you all.
