“ Uncle Mike, I didn't know you well enough, but you sure were very open and kind to Sandy and me when we came to Dallas. I really enjoyed spending time with you, Aunt Debbie, and my cousins. Thanks for being so good to my grandma all of these years. RIP

“ I have a lot of memories with Scott and his family. A lot of them have to do with Matt Trognitz and I Chris Dudley always getting Scott grounded. However, I will always remember the boat trips on Lake Lavon with Mike. Scott and I would take turns tubing behind the boat..and Mike would try throw us off the tube. We had so much fun. We might have had a few injuries as a result.
Mike thank you for helping us to create such great memories. You will be missed for sure.

Scott and family you guys are in our prayers.

Love.
