

Mitchell David Ayres

December 19, 1960 - September 5, 2020

Mitchell David Ayres was born on December 19, 1960 in Viborg, SD, and passed away on September 5, 2020 in Dallas, TX. Mitch grew up in Parker, SD and graduated from Parker High School in 1980. In 1983 Mitch moved to Dallas, TX and worked for Porter Pool Service. He then went to work as a Pool Technician for Hayden Pool Service, Inc. where he worked for over 20 years. Mitch was an avid pool and darts player and played on several leagues. He also enjoyed the outdoors, fishing and working in his yard. One of Mitch's greatest loves was cooking -he was a very good cook. His friends in Dallas remember enjoying many wonderful meals Mitch prepared for them. Mitch was preceded in death by his parents William and Gladys (Petersen) Ayres and two brothers Michael and Maurice. He is survived by his sister Mona and her husband Roger Lowe, his brother Mathew, his niece Sarah and her husband Randy Wulff, his nephew Mark Lowe and two great-nephews Rhett and Tripp Wulff. Mitch also leaves behind many wonderful and close friends who he always thought of as his family.
