“ Steve, I was very saddened to hear that your mom had passed on. She was a very sweet lady. As I think back over the years I remember that every time I went to her house she was always very polite and made you feel welcome. I will always remember her at Christmas because I have quite a few of her holiday crafts that she had made over the years. She will always be special to me. God bless.

“ Susan, So very sorry to hear about the loss of your mom. I know this is a very difficult time for you. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. This grief is still very fresh for me as I just lost my dad nearly a year ago. Hold on to the sweet assurance that your mom is sitting in heaven right now and there will be no more suffering or sadness for her. She has been fully healed! Keep those happy memories close to you as no one can take them away from you. May God keep you close to Him as you begin the healing process. If you ever need to talk, please feel free to call me. Blessings, Rhonda

“ First, praise God Almighty, “I’m thinking of you during these difficult times.” May you have Peace, Prayers and Blessings, Wishing you these words of comfort to have the courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts. May you be comforted by the outpouring of love that is surrounding you. When reason fails, pray for peace.” (Isaiah 41:10 “Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand). God promises to be with you and get you through this time of intense disappointment and loneliness. I love you and definitely here for you,Donald Knight
