“ I think I've known Bro. Bailey (& Mrs. Bailey) my entire life. I grew up at Open Door and remember always seeing them at church, faithful to serve God in any way they could. As I got older I loved talking with him and Mrs. Bailey. Thru my teenage & college years they supported me in various events raising money for camps, missions trips, etc., which was always a huge blessing. As I grew older, got married, and had kids I know they have continued to be faithful in prayer for me and my family. I know Bro. Bailey will be greatly missed. So thankful for Heaven and that we will all see him again someday. Mrs. Bailey and family you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love you.
