

William Earle Thompson

January 17, 1968 - May 22, 2020

William Earle Thompson passed away in route to Methodist Hospital in Richardson Texas after falling at home on May 22, 2020. He is survived by his mother, Janis; his two brothers, Greg and Glen; his sister-in-law, Teresa; his nephews, Kyle and spouse Sharon, Matthew, and Quinn; his niece, Sara and spouse Danny.

Will grew up in Midland Texas where he graduated from Robert E. Lee High School in 1986. He attended Texas A&M University and obtained a Bachelor of Arts from the School of Business at Southwest Texas State University in 1991. He pursued a career in marketing where he thrived for over 20 years receiving multiple achievement awards for outstanding performance.

Will had a competitive spirit that he channeled into a life-long love of sports, Texas A&M, the Dallas Mavericks, Texas Rangers, and of course the Dallas Cowboys. I think if you polled his closest friends the Aggies probably trumped the Cowboys. In addition to sports, Will's passions included his dogs, golf, traveling, cooking, landscaping, and all things New Orleans. He loved his family, was an ambassador to our extended family, and he cared deeply what others thought of him. He was one of those rare people that seemed to know everyone and everyone him. He will be remembered as a loyal friend, a courageous soul, a spirited prankster, and to those who lived in the neighborhood in our little corner of Midland Texas all those years ago – a life-long friend.

He was a soaring dove confined to a human body and after 52 years his constraints on this earthly life have been lifted. He will be dearly missed, forever remembered, and unceasingly celebrated.

“ I was sad to hear that Will had passed. Will and I were part of a group of several boys in the neighborhood who hung out together. He loved to be funny and crazy and had a quick wit. He was always cracking jokes and making people laugh. He would also set you straight if you complained too much. One time, I remember going on and on about something I didn't like and Will got tired of hearing about it and said well it doesn't like you either. His statement sort of stunned me, but it caused me to rethink what I was saying.

The neighborhood guys all enjoyed rock music and would get together for jam sessions in Tim's garage. Will practiced a lot and became an impressive guitarist. One time while in high school he grew his hair out and had it permed. With his long blond curly hair and his guitar, he looked like a rock star. Another time he decided to cut his hair, but he couldn't reach the back of his head so he just cut everything up front. He had a huge tuft of wild blond hair in the back, but it was all cut short in the front. It was the craziest looking mullet I'd ever seen.

I rarely got to see him after moving out of state, but the times we had growing in the neighborhood are memories I hold dear.

Good bye bud. I will miss you and the times we shared. Praying for Janis, Glen and Greg.

“It doesn't matter how hard it is for you. You are worth more than every good thing anyone will ever say about you.” The man who said that was my uncle, Will Thompson.

All of our hearts are broken, and we will miss you dearly. But despite all the ups and downs, all of the struggling, and the intense pain you endured, you pushed through and showed us how much strength one person can be capable of with God's help. We are indescribably proud of you. Say hi to Hannah from all of us.

P.S. Thank you for all the fun memories, the trips to B&N, the encouraging phone calls, and always ending them by saying "I love you" first. Now comes the time to switch those roles. I love you Uncle Will, always.

“ I had the privilege of going to school with Will. He was always so smart. I liked sitting by him in school because he would help me out if I began to struggle a little with my work. I was always forever grateful.

May God keep him happy and for the family. Please know that Will was a great guy and a joy to have known. May each of his family be rest assured he is making big plans for everyone he touched arrival into Heaven. I can't wait!

“ Dear Jeffrey M. Stewart,

I am Angela the Funeral Director for the Thompson family.

I just got a call from Greg, and he wanted me to let you know that your post has touched their hearts. Especially Mrs. Janis Thompson the late William's mom.

They wanted you to know they appreciated to hear from you on this website.

Thank you so much.
